

School Release Form for Student Work The Paul R. Williams Project

Your child's class has participated in an art education project about architecture using Paul R. Williams' life and work as inspiration. The Paul R. Williams Project is a team effort organized and managed by the University of Memphis Art Museum and Department of Art with support from the Memphis Chapter of the American Institute of Architects. For information about the project contact your child's teacher, the Art Museum at the University of Memphis (email: artmuseum@memphis.edu, phone: 901-678-2224), or read about the project on the website (www.paulrwilliamsproject.org).

With your permission, we will publish photograph(s) of your child's artwork and images of him/her working on the artwork in electronic and/or print media to demonstrate the K-12 educational aspect of the Paul R. Williams Project. The electronic and/or print media formats include, but are not limited to: the Paul R. Williams Project website, University of Memphis publicity, professional publications, professional conference presentations, and public relations materials produced by the granting agencies that support the Paul R. Williams Project.

We will NOT publish your child's name. We will identify the artwork and class photographs with the name of the school, teacher and grade level. There is no compensation of any kind for the use of these photographs.

Please complete this Release Form and return it to your child's teacher who will mail the form to the Art Museum University of Memphis.
